Charlie Vonderahe set through the trustees meeting the other night eating popcorn. But when they passed something or other about the zoning ordinance he didn't claim he was holding the bag. Missed a chance there to pull a good one, Charlie.

Since last election Bill Klusman has not worn his silk hat but has donned a big straw one instead. Bill says it's the hat and not the election that put him in the shade.

Rufus Harvey won the bowling shoes at the American last wk. He rolled a score of 214. Since he got the shoes he can't do any better than 156.

Jim Wise gave Elmer Jones a pipet of his tobacco the other day and Elmer ain't been the same since. Elmer said it was stronger than the Torrance water.

A big crowd is going deep sea fishing Sunday and this time Ras hopes that Doc Shidler don't give him any interesting book to read for the gang is set to leave Gilbert, Hensen and Paige's place at 9:15. Thanks for the liftrachor just the same Doc. You have the satisfaction of knowing that you were kind to brother and fish. You improved a human mind and left more members of the finny tribe in the briny deep.

Yes, and Briney is deep, too.

Whadayu think? Seen young E. L. Doheny out at the Pan American lease with a big black bag in his hand. Followed him all around, but he never set it down.

Jim Wolfe wants to know who is running against Ana Keyes. Jim asseverates somebody told him it was Ana Spades.

Bob, Shuler and Harry Chaffler are trying to scratch the "eyes" out of Keyes. That's leave only the K. And according to Mr. Price, one ain't enough.

The trustees board the other night Accomplished one good chore: They said that fruitstand's one mistake.

There ain't gonna be no more.

Oh, it ain't gonna rain no mo', no mo', etc. etc.

News are scarce thi' wk.
